Sunday, August 25 (sunny)

Today was a good day.

In the morning, I woke up early. I listened to my favorite songs on the radio while I made breakfast for my family. At breakfast, we talked about my piano performance last week. My family liked it, but I think I can do better if I practice hard. I'm going to have a piano performance in October, so I practiced for it after breakfast for three hours. I was very tired after practice, and I took a short nap before lunch. In the evening, I saw a musical with my friends. After that, we ate spaghetti. I enjoyed music a lot today.
